

Congratulations to your teachers for astoundingly amazing virtual lesson plans. I cannot begin to imagine the amount of time it took to prepare them. They are very impressive. Please congratulate them for me. This is a totally new medium of teaching and it is uncharted territory that they have mastered very quickly. You have very smart and innovative teachers. The students and parents need to know how fortunate they are to be academically connected like this and not wasting their school year.